PORTLAND, Ore. Aug. 23.—Great forest fires spread over the Oregon coast country last night, causing devastation estimated in the millions.

Clouds of smoke screened large areas from accurate estimates of the destruction, extending from the Seaside Valley to the Serrins Valley.

The Wilson fire, described by state foresters as "the worst in Oregon history," was started by lightning.

Others attempted to control three incendiary fires as the blazes raced through the mountains, borne along by a gale.

The high winds carried a spot fire from the city of Tillamook, Oregon, to the 18 miles of the city of Tillamook.

Forest rangers feared that the fire would soon

burn out of control.

Life perished before the capricious advances of the wind-swept flames.

TRUCK ABLAZE PERILS TOWN

CALGARY, Alta. Aug. 23.—Exploding of a gasoline tank in a downtown 48 miles north of Calgary shattered windows, and fire that followed for two hours threatened the town. No one was injured.

The gasoline truck, caught fire in the middle of the street, tossed blazing gasoline drums 300 yards and windows in the vicinity burst, but the building in which the real building caught fire, quickly became a charred shell.

Workers were taken to safety before they had done much damage.

CLYDE COLLEY

The boy was the only member of the family to survive the death

pact, to which Shanks assertedly confessed, because he said, Colley "knew too much" about him.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—Although the oil code is not effective until next month, the Standard Oil Company has agreed to raise wages in all its refineries to comply with code terms, officials announced yesterday. The increase is approximately 12 percent at each refinery. All workers were put on full time, and the company has no work initiated during the depression to prevent lay-offs.

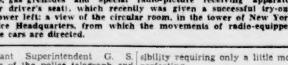

Crude petroleum imports into Canada last July totalled 121,211,000 gallons compared with 113,986,000 in June, 1932.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—A killer was at large. His fast automobile dashed through New York's major streets, a man on board, he rang the police general alarm. Hadn't he changed his car, and his license number? Even the own chief of police didn't know where to find the entrance to the tunnel that led under the Hudson River.

Look at the dumb cop!" he chuckled. "Well, let him try and find it."

LAMSON JURY SELECTION IS WARY CONTEST

State Indicates Preference
For Women on Panel—Defense Opposite

SAN JOSE, Calif., Aug. 23.—The battle for the selection of the jury to try David A. Lamson on charges of slaying his pretty wife, a secretary of the Y.W.C.A., continued yesterday, with the defense advocating a woman panel, and the head of the Stanford University Publishing house, a former resident of Redwood City, Alton E. Morrison, supporting a male panel.

The defense has indicated its preference for a jury with a predominance of women and has urged the court to accept a female panel in excusing men.

The exact opposite was advocated by the defense, insisting that the jury be composed of men.

PROLONGING THE AGONY

The Government of British Columbia has floated a loan of $3,000,000 at 5.67 percent.

That will provide the taxpayers with $170,000 worth of good reasons per year to wish that governments would get more money from some other way than by borrowing back public credit that has been loaned to private parties.

Raised funds should be raised by issuing new money—not by borrowing from the too scanty supply already in existence. That would relieve both the unemployed and the employed, who provide wages for the idle and help to send commodity prices back to profitable levels.

Borrowing makes hard times harder, depresses depressed prices, and will keep green the memory of the depression as long as the interest is paid.

IT CAN'T BE DONE

If necessary to prevent price-depressing surpluses, Secretary Wallace says the Government of the United States is prepared to subsidize the export of wheat. This, he thinks, would not be "dumping" in the presently accepted meaning of the term.

Perhaps not. But the meaning of the term will be changed very promptly if that or any other exporting country adopts a subsidy policy to force its wheat into foreign markets.

So far, we are suffering from the delusion that obsessed Premier Bennett three years ago—that one country can "blast" a way for its products into the markets of another country. That cannot be done. The Japanese have learned to buy United States Canadian wheat unless they want to. And they cannot and will not do so unless they can pay for the wheat with their products.

To buy Canadian wheat, which would simply mean that the importing countries would hoist their tariffs by the amount of the bonus, leaving the situation as it now stands. And why wouldn't they? Canada did precisely that in the case of bountied butter, cheese, and bacon.

The one way to work off surpluses of wheat is to consent to accept in payment for the wheat what people in other countries have to offer for it.

That cannot be done by making the taxpayer in producing countries pay part of the price and "unloading" at cut-rates abroad. The former heavily importing countries do not want cut-rate wheat, won't accept it, and have built up sky-high tariffs to keep it out.

WHY BUY GOLD?

United States gold mining companies would like to ship gold to Canada, and Ottawa is framing regulations to let them do it.

Gold in Canada is worth 29.50 Canadian dollars per ounce, while in the United States it is worth 29.67 U.S. dollars per ounce. The 29.67 U.S. dollars have far less purchasing power than the 29.50 Canadian dollars. It is easy to understand why the miners prefer to sell their metal here.

If the proposal is made to go through, there is no reason why it should be rejected. If Canadians want to buy United States gold for industrial purposes or the making of trinkets they should be allowed to do so. It is the gold that is given to market and put the Canadian mines out of business.

With the world hammering for gold and the price "pegged" there is not much danger of that.

But it is also true that the Government of Canada should buy this imported gold, or "borrow" enough of it to maintain the price, that is different.

Canada has about as much need to buy gold as Siam has to buy rice. The Dominion is the second largest producer in the world.

Perhaps in the curious calculations of the "sound money" fanatics the basis of Canadian finance will be strengthened, or the basis of our trade will be improved if a few more tons of the yellow metal were bought and piled in the vaults at Ottawa.

But what is meant by "sound money" is something that no longer exists. And trade is no longer done on the pretence that goods are paid for with gold. Those actions are now as "dead" as Caesar, and not much more likely to be revived.

If Ottawa is contemplating the purchase of U.S. gold it had better drop the idea and spend the money providing jobs for the unemployed.

Poems That Live

VICTORIOUS MEN OF EARTH

Victorious men of earth, no more Proud! How wide your empires are!
Though thin in every shore,
And your triumphs reach as far.

Yet you proud monarchs, must obey
And mingle with garrulous sages, when
Death calls ye to the crowd of common men.
Men of earth, you're born to rule and war,

Each aisle to undo confounds,
Death's servile emissaries are;

Nor to these alone confined.

He hath at 51

More than half a century to kill;

A man to his, as we will use the art,

Shall have the cunning skill to break a heart.

Take Sporting Chance On Mother-In-Law

DEAR MISS DIX—I am in love with a young man who wants to marry me, but if I marry him I must live with his mother. She is a widow and has two sons. One son is married and the other is still up one home he cannot afford to keep up two. He and his mother are devoted to each other. I hate to start off married life with such a handicap as living with my mother-in-law. I feel it will end in unhappiness.

What would you advise?

Answer:

I think that in your circumstances I should be guided by how much I loved the man. If he was a man of good taste, I should not risk my happiness by going to live with his mother. I would tell him that I feel that this would be cinders, ashes and dust without him. I would take a chance on making him change his mind. After all, it is a girl's right to swear to a man that she would die for him and then balk at an interview.

But if I did have a sporting chance upon him, I'd play the game fairly and squarely. I wouldn't marry a man knowing his mother and then pick a quarrel with her or go into his house with a chip on my shoulder. I would be miserable with my whines and complaints because I didn't have a home of my own or because I couldn't get along with his mother.

No men in the world are more to be pitied than those unfortunate + whose mothers and wives quarrel over the same man. Between the two women they love and who love them. How is a woman to know whether the man she has worshipped all his life, and to whom he is bound by ties of loyalty and gratitude, and the wife with whom he has quarreled? How can they run in with their differences and their abusus against each other and their wrongs and injustices and demand that he take sides?

However, it is often financially necessary for mother to live in her children's homes. If the wife is the wise and the right thing to do, the daughter-in-law to do is to set herself over and work to win her mother-in-law's heart. The older woman, tactfully, can help the younger to do this, and the ways to the older one because the old do not easily change.

And, no matter how much she has done, let her remember that the mistress in her own home is using the pretty things in her hope chest, she does well, if she goes to live in her mother-in-law's home. The old woman in law in possession of the domestic throne has occupied so long and so firmly that it is hard to see how death to her can give up her daughter-in-law.

Treat your mother-in-law with respect, and one more reason to be patient with her views, to be respectful of her faults, to be kind, and to show her tenderness may require a bit of doing, as the English say. But, if you do this, you will pay it will pay in the happiness it gives your husband.

And, after all, you owe much to the woman who spent a good part of her life developing a good husband for you.

DOROTHY DIX.

What's What

Question—What clothes should be taken by a girl for a September trip to the Rockies, Banff, and Yellowhead Park? How should she top the wearer in the dining car, and the waiter in the service car?

LOUISE.

Answer.—The outfit worn during the summer is good throughout September. A felt hat is most useful, and a long coat is a must for cool days. A two-piece navy blue ensemble or a tan sports coat and matching slacks, or a plain kimono or dark pyjamas to be worn when going to and from the hotel. Sports exordia are most comfortable for walking trips. The water bottle is a must. In the dining car, 10 per cent of the total bill is a sufficient tip. This plaided jacket is very becoming. The Pullman porter is tipped 25 or 50 cents every evening. Thus, in the autumn, the outfit will be good on a long transcontinental journey; each one is rewarded fairly for his services.

Question.—Will you kindly explain the proper way for a gentleman and a lady to enter an automobile and to sit in the front or rear seat? When the lady enters does she sit on the curb side of the car or the driver's side?

Answer.—The woman enters the car first, and is seated at the right of the man; that is to say, on the curb side.

“I’m a good sport.” Little Carl's kitty-car stood on the walk next door. Dear Joseph went over, gave it a pat, and it rolled down the hill. “Bingo!” he cried. “Bingo!” Can't you take a little fun? Go and tell your mom, “Cry baby.”

Carl's mother came out. “PICK UP THE CAR AND BRING IT BACK, JOSEPH! IT ISN'T NICE TO TEASE CHILDREN.”

“I wasn't teasing,” explained Joseph. “I was just playing a little joke on him.”

PRACTICAL JOKING.

He went his way. He spotted a boy in a baseball cap. The ball had gone into his shirt. He found it and put it in his shirt. For a moment he was pleased, then gave up the game and went home.

On his own steps again Joseph impaled the ball. When the last boy had left the plot he slipped off his cap and put it back on his head.

“BABY! CAN'T YOU TAKE A LITTLE FUN? GO AND TELL YOUR MAMMA.”

MARY, DOUG
ARE IN LOVE
SAYS VICTOR

McLaglen Analyzes Pick-fair Tangle—Other Stars Too

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Victor McLaglen, movie star and actor and former master of fortune, analyzed the Mary Pickford-Douglas Fairbanks tangle at a luncheon for newsmen yesterday when he arrived on the Olympic.

"She loves Douglas Fairbanks and he loves her," said McLaglen. "But she attained everything she could ask for, and I don't think she'll be too sorry when she didn't look up to Douglas. That's all."

McLaglen said that Pickford "is the most beautiful woman in Hollywood. None other can touch her."

Explaining his theory of making a change, he said, "I was asked if Marlene Dietrich is the 'most intelligent woman in Hollywood.' Marion Davies is 'the finest woman in Hollywood when it comes to the humanities of life.'

Port Hope Radium Needles Delivered

TORONTO, Aug. 23.—Twenty-five radium needles will be delivered to Port Hope by the Canadian Mines, Ltd., of Port Hope, to Hon. J. M. Robb, Ontario minister of health, who has been investigating mineral which the Ontario government is purchasing from the Canadian Mining Co. for its cancer clinic program.

The needles, first commercial radium needles ever produced in Canada, will be turned over to the health department of the province and if found satisfactory will be sent on immediately to the cancer clinic.

All told, 325 milligrams of radium will be bought by the government for clinic distribution and use.

HOLLYWOOD GOSSIP

INTIMATE GLIMPSES AND INSIDE STUFF ON THE MOVIE COLONY

By DAN THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 23.—Hitting the night spots, while a record number of stars are here, Terry Danieler and his orchestra on their opening night ... he's Mary Martin's brother, too ... Mary with a party ... locking Loveland Russell Gleason and "Big Boy" Williams ... wonder, which is acting like to have a monopoly on that privilege for all time ... also were seen yesterday: Leslie Fenton and Ann Dvorak sipping a reddish punch through straws ... how boy, Leslie.

At THE COLONY CLUB
On to the Colony Club looking for a quiet place to sit down, one of those places where the passing of time increases activities ... the next door to the Colony Club, a sump ... Alice White trying to get a dollar away from John Warner ... Boots Malory doing her best to impress S. Barron that it's time to go home ... wonder ... Alice felt about that ... Si being engaged to a girl who was going to Hollywood ... so few places to go that you can't escape

Every table filled with celebrities munching roast beef sandwiches.

THIRDAW WELL-ATTENDED
Eddy Knapp with a rather drowsy, gentle smile and laughing at all of his wits cracks ... wonder what caused the break between her and Douglas ... the women weren't far off for them ...
